TODAY DECEMBER 24

SCRIPTURE READINGS: The sermons this month have focused on the authority, reliability, and transforming power of the Apostles' eyewitness testimony concerning Jesus. This Sunday and next, we will spend time listening to their testimony as recorded by Luke in chapters 1:1-6:16. As we listen congregationally, let us do so with submission to the authority, confidence in the reliability, and expectation of the transforming power of the Gospel account. This morning our readers will be reading Luke 1-2.

EXTENDED MINISTRIES

Our Extended Ministries partners in Rwanda, Tim and Jessica Brubaker, sent this latest update: "On December 7th, we had our 13-year anniversary since moving to Rwanda. The fruit of ministry over these years has been the outcome of your partnership with us. We recently celebrated with 19 students who graduated from our four-year Pastoral Training School. This was a huge achievement for them. This puts the number of graduates at 123 since 2004! We have almost 40 new students set to begin in late January and want to find sponsors for them before they begin. Additionally, we have a generous donor who will match new commitments made before the end of the year, cost is $150 per month." (See Pastor John for details.) Please keep the Brubakers in prayer for the coming year.
