TODAY APRIL 30

SERMON: Confronting Modern Idolatry: Power Among other things, the power of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection is the power of freedom – freedom from our slavery to the idols that control us. For three weeks, during April and May, we will confront some of the most prevalent idols in our modern world, proclaiming the gospel – the good news – of freedom made available in Jesus. Today, Pastors Larry and Ashley will address Mark 10:35-45 and the idol of power.

EXTENDED MINISTRIES

Our Extended Ministries partners in Russia, Sasha and Natasha, would appreciate our prayer. Over two years ago Natasha experienced a stroke. She is steadily improving but still goes to a "rehabilitation camp" to work on her breathing, balance, and brain exercises. A praise: She was told to have surgery for an unrelated issue but put it off for a few years. She decided to go in to get the surgery scheduled and the issue, was not there. Pastor Sasha is requesting that we pray for God to bring strong Christian men to help lead in the church. Also, pray for the church's outreach to youth. Due to current political/economic relationships they are no longer able to receive our financial support. They are doing "okay" but do ask for prayer as they continue to serve. Please spend time thanking God for these faithful servants and praying for God to continue His work through them.
