

Psalm 20

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

B \flat G m C D m F/C C F B \flat G m

1. The LORD an - swer you when you cry in dis - tress; may Ja - cob's God
2. May God keep in mind ev - 'ry sac - ri - fice made; ac - cept on the
3. With joy we will shout when your vic - to - ry's won; we'll lift up our
4. Now tru - ly I know that the LORD from a - bove pro - tects his an -
5. In hors - es or char - iots some trust for de - fense; the name of the

C D m F/C C F F C F

6

keep you, whose name you con - fess. May God send as - sis - tance from al - tar your of - fer - ings laid. And may he ful - fill the de - ban - ners in God's name a - lone. And so may the LORD hear your noin - ted in cov - e - nant love; from heav - en in hol - i - ness LORD is our strong con - fi - dence. They're brought to their knees, while in

F D m F C F B \flat G m C D m F/C C F

11

his ho - ly place, and grant you from Zi - on sup - port by his grace.
sire of your heart, suc - cess to each one of your plans to im - part.
earn - est re - quest, ful - fill your pet - i - tions as seems to him best.
God hears his cry, and saves by the power of his right hand on high.
strength we a - rise. O LORD, save the king! Hear and an - swer our cries!