

Psalm 21

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David

F C F B \flat C F C F C

1. O LORD in your strength the king does re-joice, and in your sal-
2. He asked you for life; you gave it to him. The length of his
3. You make him most blest for-ev-er, a-men; with joy from your
4. Your right hand will find all your en-e-mies, and set them a-
5. Though e-vil they plan, they will not suc-ceed. You put them to

F B \flat F C7 F C G7/C C7 F/C C F/C

6

va-tion great-ly ex-ul-t! His heart's de-sire giv-en, you have not with-days are years with-out end. And through your sal-va-tion his glo-ry is pres-ence you—make him glad. The king trusts in you, LORD, in your stead-fast blaze, O when you ap-pear. The LORD, he will swal-low them up in his flight, for your aim is keen. O LORD, be ex-al-ted, O LORD, in your

C7 F C F B \flat F C7 F

12

held; you meet him with bles-sings, his head you have crowned.
great; and splen-dor and maj-es-ty on—him are laid.
love; through your love, O Most High, he shall not be moved.
wrath, re-move them from earth, from the chil-dren of man.
strength! Your great power, O LORD, we will sing—and will praise!